III. Principal Update – Susan Lumley

- a) Wednesday, November 18th the 9th through 12th graders will go to a viewing of the original Star Wars at the Violet Crown to celebrate their excellent PARCC scores. A later visit is being planned for the 7th and 8th grade students.
- b) Individual student PARCC scores arrived at ATC on November 10th and will be mailed home to parents shortly.
- c) A special event is being planned for the ATC Girls Cross Country Team – as they are state champions this year!
- d) The Foreign Language teachers are wondering if they can participate in Light Up the Night with international foods. Light Up the Night is a school community and fundraiser for the PTSC – which originally began to honor the victims of Sandy Hook, but has continued annually. PTSC, students, teachers and families sell crafts, art and food.
- e) ATC will not have graduation in the convention center this year. Other venues are being considered. Perhaps the Scottish Rite temple, the Lensic or the Opera.

- c) Prizes were not distributed for the fall festival costume contest due Mr. Seyfried's discretion (lack of timely communication from Student Council). There were 3 winners. PTSC will now provide the funds for the movie gift cards.
- d) Jennifer Cintas is playing a major role this year in helping the Student Council. Currently she's helping with Turkey Grams.
- e) Student Council was wondering if there could be a prize for the class with the most participation for pajama spirit day. Jennifer and Susan will help decorate a spirit stick to give to the winning class (and to be handed on at the next such event).
- f) The Student Council is working on a Breakfast Club – where they would sell breakfast items at ATC a few mornings a week.
- g) There is talk of a salad petition to let Ms. Lumley know how many students would purchase a salad from the lunch truck if they offered them each day.
- h) ATC didn't place in the Celebrate My Drive contest.
